HOW FAR WILL YOU GO — FOR OUR NATION, FOR THE CORPS AND FOR YOURSELF?

As Marine Security Guards, our mission is to protect U.S. embassies — and the people and highly classified materials inside them — around the globe. If we're invisible to the American public, it's only because we never fail our mission. To our enemies, however, we are a constant reminder of what highly trained Marines with top secret clearance are capable of — impenetrable defense. As a Marine Security Guard, your front lines exist in all four corners of the world. The question is, how far will you go to defend them?
